

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Farming is the backbone and the lifeblood of all of South Dakota;
and,

WHEREAS, Young farmers represent the hope and future in the survival of family farming as a way of life and not just a livelihood; and,

WHEREAS, Larry Hobbie was named South Dakota's Outstanding Young Farmer for 1981-1982; and,

WHEREAS, Larry was selected because of his excellence in conservation practices, community service and his record of agricultural progress; and,

WHEREAS, Larry has brought pride and respect to his community and to his state through his dedication and reverence for the soil and the life that it gives:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 24, 1982, as

LARRY HOBBIE DAY

In South Dakota, and I invite all citizens to congratulate Larry for his success as a farmer and as a young South Dakotan.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
